Mining Bank President's Son Interviewed—Claims He Closed the Bank.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

HICAGO, Aug. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Discovery of a mysterious room in which Paul O. Stensland is believed to have prepared to hide himself in his big house in Irving Park, this afternoon, brought new interest into the police hunt for the banker accused of wrecking the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank and defrauding its depositors of more than $1,000,000.

ANOTHER WOMAN SOUGHT. Another woman, believed to have shared many of the secrets of Stensland's career, also is being sought by detectives. Information of her identity was received in an anonymous letter, believed to have been written by a bank employee. It gave evidence that the police think will determine the quest for the woman in the marvelous Stensland forgeries.

BROKE INTO THE ROOM. The mysterious room, believed to have been designed as a hiding place for President Stensland, was discovered this afternoon. Detectives went to the house by Inspector Shipley broke into the room, after futile efforts to find the key.

The detective waited little to slip at the search for the fugitive banker. The little apartment, which is thought to have sheltered the frightened banker in times of alarm, had been cleaned of everything it contained. Not even a scrap of paper was left on its floor.

LAVISHLY FURNISHED. Stensland's home is one of the most lavishly furnished houses in this part of the country. Persian rugs of silky texture and beautiful design, velvet curtains, mahogany furniture, rare china, glittering glass and standard books tell their own story of the expenditure of thousands on thousands of dollars.

The grandeur of the house is like that of some foreign palace. The main hall of the house is magnificent in its colorings of rose, that blend with the dark mahogany of the woodwork. The carved chairs are upholstered in rose satin. The cover of the great mahogany table is of rose satin, embroidered with gold thread. Deep red velvet curtains, bordered with a design in gold, hang on the doors that lead to the drawing room, the music room and the dining room.

The stairway is the principal architectural feature of the house, being surrounded by a stained glass memorial window to the banker's wife.

STENSLAND'S "DEN." The smoking room, Paul Stensland's own "den," gives mute testimony of the vanity of the man. For the two most striking objects in this room are an oil portrait and a white marble bust of the banker. It reveals also the contrasting qualities of his nature; for the impressive bust has for a background framed photographs of girls in theatrical poses.

NEW RECEIVER APPOINTED. CONFLICT OF JURISDICTION. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—Another receiver for the wrecked bank was appointed this afternoon by Judge Gibbons, marking the beginning of a contest against the jurisdiction of Judge Brennan, who appointed John G. Fetzner receiver of the bank early last week.

The new receiver is the Chicago Title and Trust Company. The appointment was made on the petition of F. T. Eid, a director who received a judgment of $5000 against the bank. The appointment of the Chicago Title and Trust Company was made on the ground that the former appointment by Judge Brennan was made under the general banking law of 1872, when it should have been made under the special act pertaining to State banks, passed in 1888. It is expected that an effort will be made by the present petitioners to have Fetzner removed from office.

STENSLAND, JR., INTERVIEWED. Young Stensland, who was vice-president of the bank, was located at one of the downtown hotels, last night. He was sought out for the purpose of obtaining his comment on new police charges made during the day, to the effect that the son had previous knowledge of the entire plot, and that he had aided and abetted his father's escape. These latter charges were based on testimony given to Police Inspector Shipley during the day by employees of the bank.

VAULT CUSTODIAN'S ACCUSATION. Lorenzo Boediker, custodian of the safety-deposit vaults, informed the inspector that young Stensland had the key to his father's deposit box the day after the disappearance of the father, the middle of July, and that he went to the bank frequently and opened the box in the two weeks before the bank scandal broke.

"It is true that I had the key to my father's safety-deposit box a few days before he left town," said Theodore in comment on the inspector's statement. "I did not go through the box before I received the alarming letter, nearly three weeks later. I knew nothing absolutely about the whole miserable affair, and never had the slightest suspicion, raised until I finally went through the box in compliance with my father's mysterious letter."

POWER OF ATTORNEY. The letter, Young Stensland said, was undated and unsigned, but was postmarked St. Paul. It contained a key to his father's deposit box. He said he opened the box and found a sheet of paper bearing a power of attorney made out in his name and signed by his father. This paper Young Stensland took from the box without disturbing the other contents.

After this, said Stensland, things ran along smoothly at the bank, though he heard nothing more from his father until Friday, August 3, when he received a second letter, similar to the first. The second letter contained the companion key to the one sent in the previous letter. Stensland continued:

A STRANGE EPISODE. "In the letter, father asked how things were at the bank. Then he referred to having had bad luck in his real estate deals, and the loss of money generally. He said that things at the bank had not gone as they should have, and finally said that I would find in his vault box a memorandum of his indebtedness to the bank. After that, he devoted a couple of paragraphs to remarks on the relation of father and son, which was unusual between us."

"I went right over to the bank, that afternoon, and opened the box and began going through the papers. In the midst of the mass, I found a long envelope addressed 'Theodore Stensland.' Above the address was a notation in my father's handwriting: 'The list of names in my own writing is taken from notes which Herring claims are my obligations.'"

"The little red book which I now my indebtedness in December, 1901."

LISTS OF NOTES. "I opened the envelope and found two sheets of paper. One was a list of notes in father's handwriting. The other was a list of notes in Herring's writing. Father's list totaled $1,000,000. Herring's list was not totaled, but it proved to be some $500,000 or $600,000 less than father's."

Young Stensland said he submitted the memorandum to Francis S. Peabody, E. A. Potter and J. B. Forgan, bankers, who were loath to believe that the memorandum of forgeries could be anything but a huge mistake.

SON CONVINCED OTHERWISE. "Bank Examiner Jones," he resumed, "was unwilling to believe there was a shortage, and said he would not like to close the bank and find it was a mistake. But I was convinced that 'something was wrong, and I didn't want to take the responsibility of running the bank and taking in money when I knew conditions were suspicious.'"

CLOSED DOORS HIMSELF. Stensland declared that great pressure was brought to bear on him to keep the bank open. It was proposed by one banker that deposits be received and placed individually in envelopes pending the investigation, and that no money be paid out. The young man branded the scheme as ruinous, and with his own hands, he says, closed the doors a few minutes after 9 o'clock a.m., and told Jones to put up his closing notice.

Vice-President Stensland waived examination at the suggestion of his counsel. His bonds, on charge of conspiracy, were fixed at $100,000, and were furnished by A. H. Matson and Attorney Kern.

BANKS OFFER REWARD. KAGER TO GET STENSLAND. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—The banks of the Chicago Clearinghouse Association have offered a reward of $5000 for the apprehension of Paul O. Stensland, fugitive president of the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank.

So anxious are the banks to capture the accused official that a conference was held this afternoon, to decide upon some action to assist the police authorities in their search for Stensland, and the adoption of a resolution to pay this reward was the result.

HOLDS BABY FOR FARE. (BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A Culver line inspector today evolved a new and absolutely successful scheme of extorting two fares from women passengers who have babies. At Kensington, when a mother with a child in her arms refused to pay the second nickel, the inspector snatched the baby from her and refused to give it up until she paid the extra fare.

Borough and County Officials Prepared to Uphold Ruling of Court.

Situation Complicated Somewhat by Opinion of the Acting Mayor.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The determination of the people to resist the payment of a 10 cent fare to the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company for passage to Coney Island, Supreme Court Justice Gaynor having decided that 5 cents was legal fare, led to further excitement today.

Later tonight, the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company relaxed its enforcement of its rule that double fares must be paid. Numbers of passengers on cars bound from Coney Island who would not pay the extra 5 cents were allowed by conductors and inspectors to continue on their way.

That the officials of Kings county and the Borough of Brooklyn, are prepared to enforce Justice Gaynor's decision became apparent during the day. Dist. Atty. Clark of Kings county detailed one of his assistants to hear complaints of rough treatment by the company's employees because they had refused to pay an extra fare.

Commissioner Waldo declared that the ruling of Justice Gaynor would be enforced and any rough treatment of passengers would meet with stern action. This was offset, and somewhat, by some extent by an official opinion by Acting Mayor McGowan later in the day, after a conference between himself and Corporation Counsel Delaney, that the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company had the right to refuse to carry persons who refused to pay a second fare and the company's employees might use force, if need be, in case of resistance.

TROUBLE BEGAN ON TIME. The disturbances on the Coney Island surface cars and elevated trains that Deputy Police Commissioner O'Keefe and the Brooklyn police looked forward to yesterday, took place on schedule time.

It was all on account of Justice Gaynor's statement of Saturday that the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company did not have a right to demand a double fare to the island.

RAILROAD PASSES TO BE TAKEN UP. (BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Persons holding railroad passes would better be prepared for a rude awakening, August 20, as to the value of this transportation when presented to a conductor. Stringent orders have been issued by transportation companies to take up all such transportation in interstate business.

There is also a report out that the railroad companies in this State who have paid for advertisements in transportation have been advised to pay up in cash and withdraw the free tickets.

"This rule will undoubtedly go into effect," said a railroad man today, "and people who hold such transportation and are traveling on it on August 20 may be put in an embarrassing position. Of course, the rule will not hold good. Men will be given transportation as formerly, and the object of the bill will be defeated by the agent simply buying a ticket and presenting the same to the man, and then charging up this transportation to his expense account."

The railroad companies have been relaxing for several years that free transportation is getting to be a great evil, and one way which they have taken to get around the annoyance is not to honor free transportation on limited trains.

Thaw's Wife Bent On Testifying.

Will Reveal Inmost Secrets of the Circle Wherein White Moved.

Her Statements the Keystone of Her Husband's Legal Defense.

Fateful Note Asking for a Meeting Now Held by Counsel.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Evelyn Nesbit Thaw will take the witness stand in her husband's defense. That decision was reached yesterday by counsel for Harry K. Thaw.

Young Mrs. Thaw has always been willing to testify, but Clifford W. Hartridge, chief counsel for her husband, has repeatedly stated that it would be unnecessary.

She talked the matter over with Mrs. William Thaw, however, in a long conference at the George Lander Carnegie place, at Roslyn Garden, and the two women who will do most to save Thaw, one with her millions and the other by her story, came to an agreement that resulted in yesterday's decision.

MRS. THAW'S PURPOSE. Thaw's wife will not spare herself in the ordeal that she must face, but will reveal the inmost secrets of the circle in which Stanford White was one of the shining lights and of which she herself was a victim.

Her testimony will be the keystone of the Thaw defense, and it is believed that upon the strength of her story, will depend the fate of her husband.

ROBES AND NOTES. Most important of all, Mrs. Thaw's testimony will reveal the incidents of the day of the tragedy. She is expected to testify that Stanford White sent her a basket of roses late in the afternoon of that day, accompanied by a note in which he expressed his desire to see her at once.

This note, it is said, is now in the possession of the Thaw defense, and will be produced at the trial.

HUSBAND'S SPIRITS BETTER. Young Mrs. Thaw had a long talk with her husband in the Tombs today. When asked concerning her husband's condition, she said: "Poor Harry is in much better spirits today than he was Saturday."

Mrs. William Thaw is expected to come in from Roslyn tomorrow.

ECUADORAN PROPOSAL DEFEATED AT RIO.

American Secretary of State Continues President of Governing Board of Bureau of Republics—Drago Doctrine to the Hague.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

RIO DE JANEIRO, Aug. 13.—At today's session of the International American Conference, the report on reorganization of the Bureau of American Republics was unanimously adopted. The Peruvian amendment, declaring that "no maps be published or authorized by the bureau without the approval of the bordering countries" was sent to committee.

The Ecuadoran amendment eliminating the American Secretary of State as president of the Bureau's Governing Board was defeated after a lively discussion.

The convention adopted a declaration in favor of the conclusion of a convention embodying the principle that a naturalized citizen in one of the contracting countries who renews his residence in the country where he was naturalized be considered to have renounced his naturalization in the said country; that the intent not to return shall be presumed to exist when the naturalized person resides for over two years in the country of his origin.

An amendment would make the provisions of such naturalization treaty retroactive.

A resolution recommending to the different reports the extension for a further period of five years of the treaty of arbitration for pecuniary claims agreed upon at the Mexican conference was adopted.

The subcommittee report on the Drago doctrine, that the Hague conference be requested to decide if the use of force for the collection of public debts is admissible, has been accepted by four of the five committee members. The fifth member, who is rumored, is an Argentine delegate, awaits instructions before assenting to the report.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Aug. 12.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) There are indications of a lively fight before the international typographical union, which opened its annual convention today, is done with a resolution offered for adoption at the afternoon session praising W. R. Hearst for his support of the eight-hour movement, initiated recently by the organization.

A member of the Washington delegation offered H. T. McCullough of Omaha was up in an instant.

"I do not propose," he said, "to see the L.T.U. made a tail for the Hearst presidential bid."

He and his supporters prevented its adoption and forced its reference to a committee.

FIFTY-SECOND CONVENTION.

This is the fifty-second annual convention and it opened at 10 o'clock.

The mayor and six other prominent citizens welcomed the 60 delegates, who represent 45,000 union printers, and President James M. Lynch of the union responded.

The chief event of today was the formal presentation of books by the Ames M. Cummings Library at the Union Printers' Home, which is located here.

The principal business before the convention, which will continue all this week, is the consideration of plans for further carrying on the fight of the union for an eight-hour day.

The convention also affords representatives of all the unions of the international organization an opportunity to inspect the building and work of the union home, which has been maintained in this city for the past thirteen years.

Excursions to Cripple Creek and other points of interest will be an important feature of the week.

A new complication arose after the lumber stevedores were granted their demands. They refused to work with the non-union laborers who are taking the place of the strikers of the coast stevedores' union. As a consequence, all of the lumber vessels are tied up.

Russian Government Attaches Im-

Democrats in the Elections—Socialist Leaders Also Changing Front.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 12.—The government attaches much importance to the defeat of the Constitutional Democrats in the elections now under way. For years the provincial Zemstvos have been centers of the liberal movement, and practically all the Constitutional Democratic leaders have been prominent in Zemstvo work. Now, as candidates for reelection, they are going down to defeat.

M. Rodicheff, the most brilliant of the Constitutional Democrats, has been defeated by Col. Sheremietev, the notorious reactionary.

Reactionary sentiment.

While these results certainly indicate a reaction of sentiment against the advanced programs of the Constitutional Democrats, it should also be pointed out that the nobility, the dominant element in the Zemstvo, and the defeat of the Constitutional Democrats probably represents more of a reaction to the principle of forced expropriation of lands, to which the Constitutional Democrats are committed, than the enemy toward the purely political part of their program.

Nevertheless, the important landed interests, reactionary or liberal, are uniting and lining up in favor of the government as against the Parliamentary radical agrarian program.

STOLYPIN PLAN.

There are strong reasons to believe that it is the intention of the Stolypin ministry, if things move normally, to support the candidates of the regenerationists, who are expected to amalgamate with the Octoberists, whether the right wing of the Constitutional Democrats is secured or not.

A significant symptom of the radical change in the situation produced by the miserable failure of the general strike is the fact that the majority of the Social Democratic members who, a fortnight ago, were its most active promoters, are now in favor of turning their attention to coming elections. They have already begun a campaign the first steps were taken in scores of damage suits, and the Brooklyn Rapid Transit representatives and Deputy Police Commissioner O'Keefe of Brooklyn. Lawyers and lawyers' clerks swarmed about the points where passengers were put off and took the names of witnesses.

An outcome of the day's doings a committee of citizens is being formed in Brooklyn to enforce Judge Gaynor's ruling. Sheriff Flaherty of Kings county was informed last night that it is the purpose of the committee to call on him as Sheriff to protect them as citizens in upholding their rights.

Sheriff Flaherty said:

"I was not requested to act as yet, and I have not taken the matter under advisement. If such a request was made, and I felt that I should use my force of deputies in so small that I would be compelled to call upon the Governor of the State to give me more of the militia."

RIOTING CONTINUES.

A continuous riot was in progress along the main lines of travel. As a result of it, two women were injured, one so seriously that she may die; another woman and child came so near death that hundreds of onlookers dashed away their faces in horror; innumerable persons were bruised, and cars were arrested on charges of assault.

Among those who were put off trolley cars was H. S. Cole, president of the Brooklyn of Brooklyn. Cole went peacefully after the "bouncer" who technically assaulted his wife by taking her by the arm, when she was dressed the crowd and told her not to pay a second fare. It was after this that the trouble started, but what Cole did was by no means the cause of the disturbance that followed, for he addressed but a few people comparatively.

The police took an active hand in the trouble in the evening by arresting two Brooklyn Rapid Transit representatives and three conductors, and two motormen for not moving cars, and for blocking the highways.

At 12:45 this morning police activity was confined to the police station on the Culver route were halted at Avenue F and Gravesend street, after the conductors started in to collect the second fare.

DRAGGED OFF PASSENGERS.

Inspector Donald Grant, Deputy Police Commissioner O'Keefe, and several Brooklyn Rapid Transit representatives were gathered at this point. Several passengers refused to pay the fare, and the inspectors piled on the cars and began to drag them off.

Deputy Commissioner O'Keefe gave orders to the policemen to throw the chairs of the cars. They did so. The car then proceeded after the police had ordered the motorman to go ahead. He did not go far, however. Just fifteen yards away, Superintendent Smith, who had been arrested early in the evening and was bailed out, was seated in his automobile, at the side of the tracks.

The motorman stopped when his car was opposite Superintendent Smith, and inspectors who had been ejected by the police hustled up and tossed women, children and men off in a very lively manner.

The police had been devoting their attention to the first car and did not hear what was going on in the other cars. The inspectors, however, did not stop. The police ran up, but the work had been completed and the motorman had taken his car toward the Brooklyn B.R.T. station.

The police managed to get all hands on the second car and keep the chairs off.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 12.—The rush of visitors to this city for the annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic continues unabated and the present prospect is that the meeting will be one of the best ever held by the organization.

According to the estimates of railroad men, fully 100,000 people have so far arrived, and dozens of trains running in two and three sections are still on the way.

Minneapolis has risen to the occasion in magnificent fashion and it is difficult to mention anything that could detract from the entertainment and comfort of her visitors, which have already been prepared. Numerous committees have been appointed to receive the veterans at the depots and a man has but to mention who he is to secure his desires. At nearly every corner in the business section of the city is situated an "information booth."

STREET SEATS A COMFORT.

A feature of the thoroughness that underlies the entire work done by the local entertainment committee is found in the numerous benches that are strewn along both sides of all the downtown streets. They are rough affairs, fashioned crudely out of unplaned plank, but they afford a reliable place for thousands of tired pedestrians.

No feature of the entertainment has been so productive of comfort and convenience as the city itself. It is decorated as though every man had made it his personal business to see that Minneapolis looked her best. The streets are clean and bustling with everywhere from roofs to sidewalks and banners are swung in endless profusion across the city.

The city itself is decorated as though every man had made it his personal business to see that Minneapolis looked her best. The streets are clean and bustling with everywhere from roofs to sidewalks and banners are swung in endless profusion across the city.

They seem, are still in progress and they will be increased until the morning of Wednesday, when the last of the veterans will close in honor of the great parade.

CONTEST FOR COMMANDER.

The contest for national commander is growing warmer, although no great amount of electrifying has so far been done. The friends of Capt. H. P. Conroy of Kansas, are making what is outwardly the most aggressive campaign. Other candidates whose names are being put forward are R. B. Brown of Zanesville, O., and Charles G. Burton of Missouri. There is no contest worth mentioning for any of the minor offices.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the G.A.R. was held today to determine matters of routine relative to the business meeting of the encampment.

It is expected that considerable debate will be held by Congress driving the question of the old soldiers' home.

The report of the committee on insurance law of the American Bar Association, to be submitted to the convention of the association which meets at St. Paul, August 22-23, was presented yesterday by Ralph W. Brockbridge of Omaha, chairman of the committee.

Wrapping a sheet around him so that it folds made a perfect shroud, J. W. Brown, an East Des Moines commission merchant, lay on the floor of his bathroom and inhaling a sufficient quantity to cause death. Despondency due to the death of his wife, is supposed to be the cause.

The selection of a jury was begun yesterday in the trial of Doss Galt, charged with the murder of a man who had been hanged three negroes at Springfield, Mo., last April. Witnesses and spectators were separated by ropes stretched across the courtroom and the special panel of talesemen was under guard in a roped-off space.

PRESIDENT RECEIVES IMPORTANT VISITORS.

*Chairman Sherman Goes Over the Congress Campaign With Him.
Shonts Makes Report on the Progress of Canal Work to Date.*

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

OYSTER BAY (N. Y.), Aug. 11.—The President entertained at luncheon today Representative James H. Sherman, chairman of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee; Chairman Shonts of the Isthmian Canal Commission, and Joseph E. Bishop, secretary to the Canal Commission.

When Representative Sherman left this afternoon he said that while he had gone over the Congressional campaign with the President thoroughly, the single object of his visit was to review the campaign last book, which is to be issued next week.

"STAND-PAT" BOOK.
When Speaker Cannon and Mr. Sherman and other members of the Congressional Committee visited here several weeks ago, certain matters to be handled in the next book were discussed in detail. Mr. Sherman said it was desirable to go over these matters again with the President before the book should be given to the public.

Mr. Sherman spoke appreciatively of the President's interest and assistance in the campaign. The outlook, he said, was good.

"Of course," he remarked, "the Republicans are not going to retain all the seats they have now in the House, but we will remain in actual control of the Sixth Congress. Of that we are sure."

The last election, he said, President Roosevelt won the ticket and no real Democrat against him. For this reason we carried a number of strictly Democratic districts that we had no right to. While we expect to lose some of these districts, the Republican members who hold them now are confident in every instance of their retention.

SHONTS AND THE CANAL.
Chairman Shonts of the Isthmian Canal Commission said he had given the President a report up to date of the progress of the canal work in Panama. The President, he said, was very interested in the progress of the work.

Political right, and I will believe that to secure political power by force or by fraud ought to be regarded as disgraceful in the eyes of the public as to secure money by force or fraud.

"I cannot conceive of any plausible defense which Mr. Sullivan can make for remaining on the National Committee. If the body is unable to rid itself of the leadership of men like Sullivan, who seek to control the party organization in order to advance their corporate interests, it might as well dissolve. While I was anxious to see Sullivan a chance to resign without a fight, it is possibly just as well that he refused, for if we must fight to purify the party organization, the sooner it begins the better."

The controversy between Bryan and Sullivan grew out of a campaign for seats in the National Democratic Convention at St. Louis in 1904, when, against the protest of Bryan, the Illinois delegation, led by Hopkins and Sullivan, was seated.

IS DUNLAP THE BOSS?
BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.
CHICAGO, Aug. 11.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Sullivan, when interviewed today as to Bryan's latest utterances, declared there was no truth in them. He said: "Mr. Bryan got all his information from Mr. Dunlap, and is doing what Mr. Dunlap wants him to do. All the information he has about the Illinois situation he has received from Dunlap and Thompson. He is fighting their battles—battles that they cannot fight for themselves. His statement is not true as to the control of the State convention two years ago, as to the National Committee, or as to the Committee on Credentials. It is much bigger than the entire Democratic party."

BRYAN'S LETTER.
Sullivan referred to a letter which, he said, Bryan had written to Ben M. Caldwell, Democratic nominee for Congress in the Twenty-first District, in which letter, he said, Bryan admitted that he had received all of his information from Dunlap. The letter, he said, was proof of his assertions.

The letter from Bryan to Caldwell follows:
NORTH BRITISH STATION HOTEL, GLASGOW, July 29.
My Dear Mr. Caldwell: Mr. Dunlap has brought me your message, and I hasten to say that I shall be glad to come to your district if engagement will permit, and I shall try to so arrange them that they will permit it.

Mr. Dunlap, he said, was a thoroughgoing liar. He said that he had received all of his information from Dunlap. The letter, he said, was proof of his assertions.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—Gov. Magdon of Panama advised the State Department today of the arrest of three men on the Isthmus, charged with plotting to kill President Amador and overthrow the republic.

Eleven of the men are Colombians, one is a Mexican and the other a Nicaraguan. All are in jail.

Gov. Magdon says the incident caused but little excitement; that none of the men are suspected of having been in the employ of other governments.

WASHINGTON BRIEFS.
Additional Clerks for Berkeley.
NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Four additional clerks today were authorized for Berkeley, Cal., at $600 each. They were intended, acting Postmaster-General Hitchcock said, to meet the emergency increase in mail at that office, growing out of the four times as quickly as he could pull the trigger.

Four persons were writhing in agony on the board walk when the man fled toward the ocean, threatening any person who offered to pursue him. The injured, three of whom may die, are:
Pittsford, Thomas, 25 years old, No. 215 East Fifth street, Brooklyn, shot in the breast and side; may die.
McDonald, Thomas, 19 years old, No. 14 Conners street, Newark, N. J., shot in the back; may die.
Smith, Annie, 29 years old, No. 293 Bedford street, Williamsburg, shot in the thigh and leg; serious.

White, George, 25 years old, Twenty-second street and Railroad avenue, Coney Island, shot in the back; may die.
At the time of the shooting the crowd was pouring from the restaurant. In the throng were many women. At the sound of the shooting and the screams of a woman who witnessed the shooting, the crowd broke in all directions.

Stood the man deliberately turned the weapon toward them as fast as he could pull the trigger, and the crowd fled in all directions. As shot after shot rang out and the victims fell to the walk screaming, a panic broke (thrown to the walk as man ran over them to reach a place of safety. The stranger defied any one to follow him. He held the revolver in his right hand and laughing shouted: "The man who follows me I will kill."

No one ventured to approach him. He jumped over the railing and vanished in the direction of the ocean. Fully 3000 persons stood at the entrance to the Bowers and from them a cry swelled that the murderer must be lynched. They broke down all police barriers and forced their way to the Bowers, overturning the police.

Then down on the sands in the direction which the assassin took the crowd poured. The avenue of escape was closed. It generally was understood, through the voices of a "ringleader" selected, that the man who fired the shots should be brought from a pole in Surf avenue. The already excited crowd accepted the idea with a shout and a cheer. The crowd searched for a man dressed in a dark suit of clothes and wearing a Fedora-shaped straw hat. He was described as being short and of medium build.

Two big searchlights were playing on the beach early today to assist the police, and thousands were sliding the authorities in a search for the assassin.

Four persons were writhing in agony on the board walk when the man fled toward the ocean, threatening any person who offered to pursue him. The injured, three of whom may die, are:
Pittsford, Thomas, 25 years old, No. 215 East Fifth street, Brooklyn, shot in the breast and side; may die.
McDonald, Thomas, 19 years old, No. 14 Conners street, Newark, N. J., shot in the back; may die.
Smith, Annie, 29 years old, No. 293 Bedford street, Williamsburg, shot in the thigh and leg; serious.

White, George, 25 years old, Twenty-second street and Railroad avenue, Coney Island, shot in the back; may die.
At the time of the shooting the crowd was pouring from the restaurant. In the throng were many women. At the sound of the shooting and the screams of a woman who witnessed the shooting, the crowd broke in all directions.

Stood the man deliberately turned the weapon toward them as fast as he could pull the trigger, and the crowd fled in all directions. As shot after shot rang out and the victims fell to the walk screaming, a panic broke (thrown to the walk as man ran over them to reach a place of safety. The stranger defied any one to follow him. He held the revolver in his right hand and laughing shouted: "The man who follows me I will kill."

No one ventured to approach him. He jumped over the railing and vanished in the direction of the ocean. Fully 3000 persons stood at the entrance to the Bowers and from them a cry swelled that the murderer must be lynched. They broke down all police barriers and forced their way to the Bowers, overturning the police.

Then down on the sands in the direction which the assassin took the crowd poured. The avenue of escape was closed. It generally was understood, through the voices of a "ringleader" selected, that the man who fired the shots should be brought from a pole in Surf avenue. The already excited crowd accepted the idea with a shout and a cheer. The crowd searched for a man dressed in a dark suit of clothes and wearing a Fedora-shaped straw hat. He was described as being short and of medium build.

Two big searchlights were playing on the beach early today to assist the police, and thousands were sliding the authorities in a search for the assassin.

AMERICA'S TWO DARING SWIMMERS.

PROF. GEORGE KISTLER.

of the University of Pennsylvania, who will endeavor to swim the English Channel. Another American who will try for Capt. Webb's laurels is George Kistler, the noted University of Pennsylvania swimmer. He is also in Europe, but has never yet made the attempt, although he has a long record of notable swimming feats to attest his qualifications. Kistler is an Englishman by birth, but has lived in Philadelphia many years. He discovered and trained the noted champions, Schaefer and Gaul. In 1907 Kistler won the mile championship of the world, competing with Beckwith of London, who held the championship for a number of years. In the "all comers" 1000-yard race of England, which is held annually and which is open to the world, Kistler took part every year from 1900 to 1902. In these he took many first, although competing with the best swimmers of England, and occasionally famous foreigners.

WILLIAM J. GLOVER, JR.
Maryland athlete, who will try to swim the English Channel. Unless something unforeseen occurs, William J. Glover, Jr., the champion long-distance swimmer of Maryland, will surely attempt to swim the English Channel this summer. For several months Glover has been making preparations to attempt the wonderful feat, but the necessary financial backing was lacking. This greatest of all Glover's difficulties has been overcome, and he is now in Europe. He is 25 years old and a very muscular young man. On July 18, 1905, Glover defeated C. D. Graham in a swimming contest of the lower rapids of Niagara River. He will commence practicing long swims in the English Channel, endeavoring first to learn the currents before he undertakes to swim across it. Glover has been swimming since very young. At the age of 15 years he swam a distance of twelve miles.

WILL USE AMATEURS.

Accident to Dillon Causes Need to Scan Ranks of Local Teams for Material.

The accident to Capt. Dillon of the Los Angeles baseball team comes as a serious blow just at present, and coupled with this is the injury to Mangarino, which put him out of the game.

Oil Mead was out yesterday seeking good amateurs with whom to fill the vacancies and the first man he thought of was young Whaling of the Examiner, whom he will send to the team at once. As he finds others who can hold down a berth on the team he will give them a chance, and believes in this way he can keep the Loozies from going back.

In a private message to Mead it appears that Dillon had a clean shave for his life aside from the terrible injury sustained. When the car was wrecked, Dillon was thrown at least twenty feet, going across the track and under a freight car, coming out on the other side. Dillon's scalp was opened about four inches, his shoe torn from his foot, and he was terribly bruised.

"GUN BUSTERS" RETURN.

Read and Burner Bring Two Championships South After Showing the North Something.

Well pleased with their trip north, the eight trap shooters who participated in the series of events at Monterey and other points returned to Los Angeles yesterday.

The powder burners brought back two championships tucked away in their belts. Dick Reed, having captured the professional trophy, breaking 54 birds out of a possible 60, and Robert Dugan getting the State amateur championship at Monterey.

Reed walked away from his field from the beginning, his closest competitor being Holling, the San Francisco expert.

All hands report much enthusiasm among the gun busters of the North over the prospect of the big interstate shoot to be held in Los Angeles in September. With few exceptions those who participated in the northern events will return with a full bag, and an array of powder burners get busy at the local traps there will be some more noise.

KYLE AN AMATEUR.
Investigation by A.A.U. Committee Fails to Bring Light Evidence of Professionalism.

The protest filed by Ben Watlington against William Kyle, the crack water sprinter, who won the fifty-yard dash in the water carnival at Naples Sunday, did not hold good with A. Lawton and B. Dyas, representing the A.A.U.

The protest alleged that Kyle was a professional, and immediately after the race Watlington laid his charges before the committee. Yesterday Lawton and Dyas went over the matter thoroughly and failed to find evidence to support the contention, and therefore awarded Kyle his victory as an amateur.

HAS A SNAP.

THINKS ATTELL.

Abe Attell writes from the East that he expects an easy time in his coming battle with Frank Courtney, which occurs August 15 at Grand Rapids, Mich. Immediately after this battle, Attell will make a circuit of the eastern cities in theatrical stunts, then returning to Los Angeles, where he will wait for someone to show up with a fighting apparatus anxious for the feather-weight title.

NEIL WILL BOX.

WANTS A LITTLE SCIENCE.

Frankie Neil will take a scientific boxing before making another fight. Frankie had been thinking of getting a return match with Larry Baker, but believes a rest and a few boxing will put him where he can go after the little fellow and whip them all. He will go to San Francisco today or tomorrow to help Jim Neil get his horses ready for the fall racing season, and will then take up his work with some fast youngsters.

STRENUOUS ROAD WORK.

CYCLONE THOMPSON DRAWS A DAY OF ADVENTURE.

Chased by Dogs, Threatened With Arrest as a Lunatic and Beating a Bull in a Foot Race Part of His Programme — Fighter Gets Lost and Tries a Short Out.

Mistaken for a lunatic, chased by dogs and hustled over a barbed-wire fence with a pugnacious bull running a close second and tramping fourteen miles across country in an endeavor to find just where he came from, was the experience yesterday of "Cyclone" Thompson, the fighter who is training to beat Dick Hyland August 25.

Thompson got lost while out on his morning's run, and put in a strenuous day. The next time he goes out his trainers will pin a tag on him telling some kind-hearted farmer to send the stray back to his friends, or else provide him with a pocket compass.

Thompson got started out on the road at an early hour and covered about five miles on a brisk run. While returning to town he became sidetracked on a strange highway, and after trotting along a mile or more discovered his mistake. Having just called back in the forests of Illinois the "Cyclone" counted himself something of a woodsman, but when he tried to find more on the north side of a pine tree he abandoned this bit of lore. He had heard that a sun dial could be used to direct him aright, and set down in the road and began drawing one. The next moment along came a farmer, who threatened to take him to the township constable on an insanity charge. Thompson "blew" the locality and started across lots on a trot. Here he met the dog, followed by a "hired man," who thought him an escaped convict or a fugitive from justice.

The bull and fighter got away to a good start on a fast track, and it was anybody's race to the first hurdle. Here Thompson cleared a ditch, but for a moment caused the bull to balk and refuse to jump. But a gleaming red sweater out in front provided excitement, and while the fighter was getting his wind bags pumped full of rural scenes, his bullship took another spurt and came down the hill like a runaway freight.

"Cyclone" looked to his corner for instruction, but everything seemed to whither "beat it," and "beat it" he did. "Won't that beast never get tired," soliloquized "Cyclone" as he hearing other ditch like an antelope. A fellow from of to told him he was still in the road and not thinking of showing a yellow streak. By this time the pair had entered the stretch in a sprint for the wire. The wire was a few feet away, and Thompson was in a position to win, but he offered the only chance of getting a draw with his bullship, so Thompson put up his throttle another notch and raced for it.

The fighter took the last hurdle like a champion and found himself safe in the road. It was then that he hid his Sunday-school lessons in the tall grass and told the bull a few things about indecent exposure. Thompson ought to have made him swear off chasing swimmers.

Just about the time when his trainers were thinking of organizing a searching expedition, the "Cyclone" rolled into camp, having wandered some fourteen miles of territory looking for the right way home.

HEAVIES WANTED.
Burns Needs Trainers.

Wanted — About four big, husky aspirants for pugilistic honors. Apply to Tommy Burns, who has a contract to rap Al Kaufmann on the nose September 11.

Tommy is preparing for his coming battle with Kaufmann and will take up his headquarters at Arcadia next week when he will call out all the heavyweight talent hereabouts as sparring partners.

The death of heavyies is a sore problem to the heavyweight champion, and he has friends out scouring the highways and byways for human punching bags. Burns will try out any big fellow who wants to get into the business, and the ones who make good will be put on his payroll as regular apparatus of the training camp.

Burns put up his title since getting Kaufmann's word that he would fight, and has worked a little every day. Next week he will begin work in earnest with his new pupils, and the ones who make good will be put on his payroll as regular apparatus of the training camp.

Among the heavy fellows who can give Tommy work with "Big Boy" Quail, who tried out with the Turk, and at Naud Junction and made a good impression with McCarty. Burns will take up his headquarters at Arcadia next week when he will call out all the heavyweight talent hereabouts as sparring partners.

WESTERN ENTRY WINS.
Yacht Spokane Distances Competitors in Try-out for Roosevelt Cup at Marblehead.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.] MARBLEHEAD (Mass.) Aug. 13.—Ideal yachting weather prevailed this morning for the trial races for the selection of three American boats to sail against an equal number of German yachts for the Roosevelt cup.

For the first time in many weeks the fog had completely disappeared. Mingled among the schooners, steam yachts, the racers of other days and several of the latest creations in the small-boat line. There were seventeen in all. Each had a stubby little bowsprit, a twenty-foot mast and a cockpit barely big enough to hold the three men to which each boat is limited.

The race started at 11:10. The course was triangular, fifteen miles in length. The time limit was fixed at six hours. At the start the wind had dropped to seventeen miles an hour. The Spokane, of the Eastern Yacht Club, which is reported as the western representative in the contest, won the race, finishing one minute and forty-eight seconds ahead of the Haystack III. Windmill Kid was third; Man-o-war IV fourth and the Vin fifth. The Spokane crossed the line at 3:33:02.

regards the championship battle as easy money, for he will not begin training for a week.

Joe Gans, whose wife is here with him, started light work today at Columbia, where he will make his headquarters.

The selection of referee was left to the club. In view of Gans' statement that two of those mentioned were too old to referee, Crish, who is taken by objects to Siler and Bat Masterson, it is probable that the referee will be either Jack Welch, Jack McGuigan or Tim Hurst. Graney will not be considered.

TEAMS BREAK EVEN.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.] ST. LOUIS, Aug. 13.—Before the largest week-day crowd that has attended a local baseball game in recent years, St. Louis and Philadelphia broke even in a double-header, the home team losing the first, eight to nothing, and winning the second, five to one.

Waddell managed to pitch both games, but continuous hitting drove him from the slab in the second inning of the second game. During the first game a spectator in the grand stand rushed onto the field and attempted to strike Umpire O'Loughlin. He was quickly surrounded by St. Louis players and taken from the field. Score:

When You Begin To Think of PIANOS

It Pays To Think of "The Big House"

This house offers unequalled advantages to piano buyers. Advantages in quality; advantages in price; advantages in terms. Isn't it reasonable to believe that a large company like this, with a chain of stores extending from Canada to Mexico, can offer more actual piano value at any given price than any house that does business on a small scale?

We buy by the carload, mark the prices very close. We'll make terms so reasonable that you can easily own a piano. Let's talk it over. Come in today.

CUPID GRAFTS IN MYSTERY.

Slueths on Canyon Murder Case Are Used to Reunite Two Fend Hearts.

Two palpitating hearts, squishy with love, have been reunited by sky Dan Cupid through the Santa Monica murder mystery.

An agitated young man some days ago turned in a burning clay to the Sheriff—blonde young woman, and all the rest of it. They searched for her early and late, and at last they hunted her down.

Yesterday the slueths told him of finding her alive and well, and expressed their disgust at his false lead. He blushed and stammered out this explanation:

"You'll have to excuse me, I guess. The truth is we—that is, we quarreled. We were engaged, and she got mad and moved from her lodgings, and I couldn't find her."

Then he turned a fishy goo-goo eye upon the Sheriff.

"You don't know what it is to be in love," he pleaded. "I just HAD to see her again, and I thought if I told you it was a clue you would find her for me."

Quick, Heavy Profits

Can Be Easily made by Buying Shares for the Next Four Days in the

Manhattan - Gibraltar Gold Mines Company

CAPITAL $1,000,000, FULL PAID AND NON-ASSESSABLE

Now Selling at 5 Cents A Share

Price Advances Saturday, Aug. 18, to 7 1-2 Cents.

On the basis of the report of Mine Superintendent Captain Henry Harrison (whose high standing here is a guarantee of the value of his statements) backed by the statement of Director Rindle, who has just returned from the mine—that Gibraltar has as great mineralized showing as any other Manhattan mine nearby that is selling stock for 250 per cent more money, the directors have decreed that the price of stock, now 5 cents a share, will positively be advanced after Saturday night, Aug. 18, to 7 1/2 cents a share. And as the shares will be listed on the exchange, buyers can realize a heavy speculative profit on every dollar invested up to Saturday night at 5 cents a share.

How Money Multiplies

Take for example an investment of $100 made now at 5 cents a share. That amount will buy 2000 shares, par value $1 each.

Company's Price for 2000 Shares After Saturday at 7 1/2c	$150.00
Cost of 2000 Shares Before Saturday at 5c	$100.00
Estimated Gain as Above	$50.00

Five Reasons to Buy Now:

- First. Gibraltar, 5c a share, adjoins Arkell's Hindocraft mine, 25c a share, and has same veins and mineral formations.
- Second. Gibraltar is a working property now, being actively developed by Capt. Henry Harrison by a tunnel now 150 feet in.
- Third. Gibraltar is a "No Promotion Stock" company and all stock is treasury stock, thus providing a million shares for development purposes and making the enterprise truly co-operative so that each shareholder receives proportionate benefits and a square deal.
- Fourth. Gibraltar is a home enterprise backed by Los Angeles men and over 700 local shareholders, every one of whom is pleased with the management of the company.
- Fifth. Bodies of ore are already opened up, and Capt. Henry Harrison, our superintendent, says that the tunnel when driven to the main ledge should open a great mine.

Just Four Days Remain

to buy at 5c and you will have to act quick if you want to get stock at this ridiculously low price. Investors living out of town are advised to telegraph their orders or call long distance phone.

CARMEN'S BLUNDER CAUSES BAD WRECK.

Head-end Collision on Los Angeles and Redondo Railroad Results in Injury to Twenty-seven Passengers. Two May Not Recover.

THE INJURED.
E. H. SHIRLEY, publisher, Palm avenue; fracture of the skull, severe concussion and serious internal injuries. Not expected to live. Is at the Sister's Hospital.
J. H. TRAVERS, cement contractor, of the firm of Travers & Snyder, No. 1011 Diamond street; internal injuries, spine wrenched, left leg terribly bruised, probably fractured, cut on face and head; taken to Sister's Hospital.
McKenzie swung the car out from the siding and turned on the current, the car responding with a spring like a well-trained horse.
Between Fortieth and Forty-first street, on the line of the track, is a barn and a high billboard which are said to obscure the line of vision as the cars round the curve.
McKenzie could not see his danger until car No. 15, coming from the opposite direction, in charge of W. O. Smith and Al Moyer, motorman and conductor, came swinging into sight, running like the wind.

With a sudden impulse, passengers jumped from their seats and screamed.
Both motormen put on the air. The motorman of the city-bound car jumped just as the crash occurred. He confessed to have run away and hid until after the wounded had been dragged from the wreck. He says that he feared he would faint at the sight of the blood.
Had he stayed, he would have been mashed into a pulp.
The motorman of the other car, McKenzie, remained at his controller. Rare luck saved his life. It chanced to be the other car which suffered worst.
McKenzie's car crashed its way through the open front end of the other car, literally smashing it into splinters. The controller of the city-bound car was crushed back almost to the car doors. McKenzie could have caught the inner doors of the other car; his car had driven its way through the entire front end.
In the midst of the wreckage and splintered wood, smashed seats, men's legs could be seen sticking up into the air, kicking and struggling. Horrified passengers climbed over the debris to the open air.
Nearly every one seemed to be bleeding. The shrieks that go with accounts of wrecks in books were not there. It was still. People seemed to be dazed. They seemed bewildered at the sight of blood dripping over their clothes.
A small, thin man came crawling out of the wreck dragging a man who was evidently his brother. He laid him gently out on the dirt and stood over him, calling: "Dick, Dick, why don't you speak to me?" Finally the man on the ground came to and spoke to the rescuer.
An old woman, thin and bent, came crawling out from the wreck and sat down on the ground, leaning against one of the trolley poles, groaning most deplorably.
One fat man was dragged out from a seat in which he had been jammed, bleeding terribly. The car crew, with the exception of the one motorman, stayed by the wreck and helped to bring out passengers.
McKenzie, the motorman, was wounded in the head, but would not allow his hurt to be bandaged until the wounded were gotten from the wreck.
The rescuers had to clamber over the tangled wreckage as bent they could get the wounded. Most of the hurt ones managed to extricate themselves and came crawling out one at a time.
One man, however, had been sitting on the little front seat next the motorman. He was so tightly wedged into the wreckage that he had to be pried out with sticks. He was groaning, but not crying for help.
After a few minutes another car drove in from Redondo. The wrecked cars were quickly pulled apart and backed onto the siding. The newly-arrived car was then filled with people for the city with the maimed people stretched out over the floors, the least hurt nursing and comforting the others.
At first and Broadway they were met by police ambulances, private ambulances and even cabs. The wounded were tenderly helped to the ground by bystanders and the carmen and police attendants, and the most gruesome procession ever seen in this city started for the Receiving Hospital.
Those of the wounded who could walk were allowed to do so. They made

STATE SLATE'S SLICK SLIDE.

Machine Works Smoothly at District Caucuses.
Convention Delegates Named by Republicans.
No Bouquets Are Tossed at the Governor.

Delegates to the Republican State Convention and to the Seventh Congress District Convention were nominated yesterday at Assembly District caucuses in Los Angeles and Pasadena. Their names will be voted upon at the primary election today, together with those of candidates for delegates to the county convention. The delegation will go to Santa Cruz unopposed. Pardee wasn't given a thought. Very few of the delegates chosen are favorable to him.

Just like a nickel-in-the-slot machine shelling out gum the various Assembly District caucuses yesterday morning shelled out the delegates that the machine had picked to go to the State convention. There were a few insignificant fights on proposed delegates here and there, but they were smoothed over quickly by the great white boss or his lieutenants.

It mattered not to the organization leaders if a paltry half-dozen changes were made in the slate. There were plenty of votes to spare, and magnanimity was cheap.

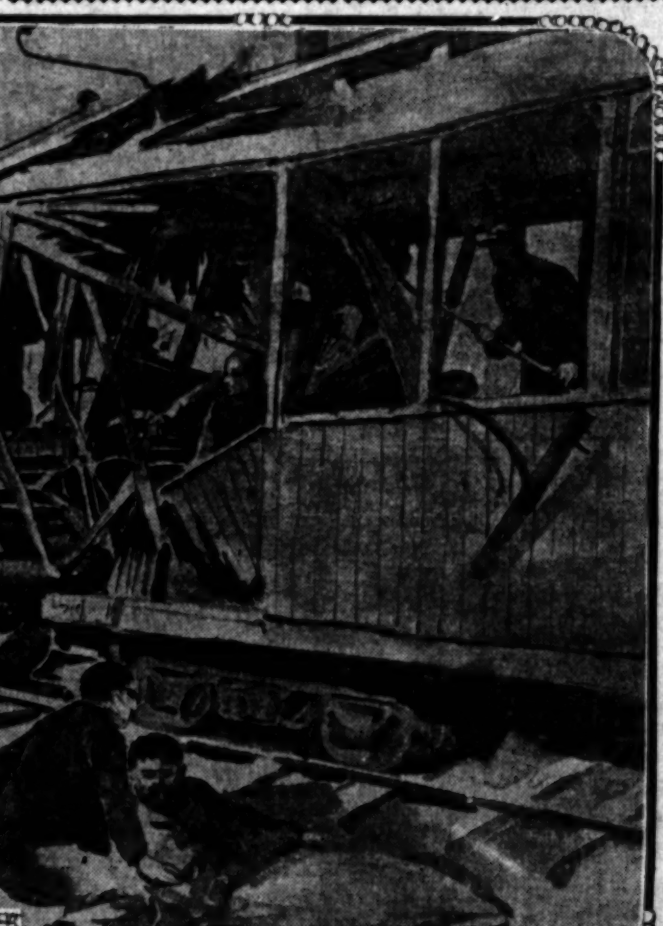

The caucuses were composed of the caucus delegates to the county convention who were selected Saturday night. In each Assembly District these delegates gathered; some one got up and read a list of names suggested as candidates for delegates to the State convention; it was moved that the names as read be nominated, the motion was seconded, the ayes and noes were called for, and the ayes carried with but few exceptions.

SLAP AT GARRETT.
One of these exceptions was in the Seventeenth District. They decided out there that they did not wish L. R. Garrett to go to the Congress convention, although his name appeared on the slate as presented to the caucus. Garrett's name was erased as soon as the strength of the opposition was shown and that of J. Frank Thompson was substituted in its place.

In the Seventy-fourth District caucus it was expected a dispute would arise over the snap caucus called Saturday night in Precinct Eight by J. W. Curran, a committeeman. In favor of Sherer for County Clerk. This was avoided through the fact that the contesting delegates did not put in an appearance. They will fight out their troubles at the primaries today.

The delegation of 129 from Los Angeles county will include 75 members from the city of Los Angeles, 19 from Pasadena, and 35 from the country precincts. Those from the country precincts will be elected on Wednesday at Assembly District caucuses to be held at 10 o'clock a.m. these conventions being made up of county convention delegates elected at the county primaries of last Saturday.

As there is but one aspirant for the Republican nomination for Congress there was no hitch in the nomination of delegates to the Congress convention, which is to be held on the 15th inst.

Crash of cars on Redondo railway in which twenty-seven passengers were injured, and diagram showing how wreck occurred.

A little separate procession of their own, leaning on the arms of their friends, their badges of membership being bloody bandages.

HOSPITAL CROWDED.
From the Receiving Hospital, the wounded were distributed to the various city hospitals in the city. They came and left so rapidly that it was impossible to keep track of them all. When frantic relatives rushed to the station on learning of the wreck, they frequently could not learn where their friends or relatives had been taken.

Meanwhile the railroad men were hurriedly erasing the marks of the wreck from the landscape. The cars were hooked up and pulled back to the Redondo car shops. A wrecking crew was sent to the scene with shovels to throw dirt over the blood marks.

CONDUCTOR BLAMED.
The official version of the affair which was issued by Superintendent Bonnet of the Los Angeles and Redondo Railroad, blamed the whole thing on the conductor of the out-bound car—Witte.

Bonnet said: "Practically all the facts I have in the case are from hearsay, but I think the wreck was caused by the failure of conductor Witte of the south-bound car to look at the signal on the single track. He is the conductor of the north-bound car. All conductors are ordered to look for a 'clear track' signal before starting on the single track. Witte evidently failed to do this."

In a statement to a Times man who was on the car, the conductor blamed the wreck to the dispatcher who gave him his orders.

AN AWFUL BLUNDER.
WHAT A TIMES MAN SAW.
A Times man happened to be a passenger on the outgoing Redondo car, the crew of which is blamed for yesterday's wreck. He witnessed every incident of that disaster.

From a seat inside the car he saw the conductor get out at Figueroa street, and telephone to the dispatcher for orders. The signal was then given to the motorman to proceed and the car went out onto the single track.

It was going at least twenty-five miles an hour. Suddenly the reporter heard cries of horror about him, and saw the people on the front end of the car spring to their feet.

There came a blinding crash and the car drove through the front end of the opposing car with a splitting, crashing noise.

California. "Had it not been for the devotion of a woman we would not be celebrating this event tonight," she said. "To that sweet, brave girl bride, Jessie Benton Fremont, credit and honor must be given for the freedom that came to California and saved this part of the Pacific Coast for the United States. When Fremont was journeying forth into the West, a path-inder, his girl wife received a letter containing an order from Washington directing him to return at once and report to the government. She was directed to forward this, but knowing that to do so would be fatal to her husband's mission, she sent another message reading: 'Break camp and move on without pause. On to victory.' Fremont responded to that message to her glory."

Lee C. Gates, the orator of the evening, spoke of the raising of a flag in a conquered country as both a triumph and a tragedy. He sketched the changes of flags on this continent from 1661 to the present day, pointing out for what the change stood in each case and concluding with an eloquent tribute to the flag.

The programme was interspersed with vocal selections by Isabelle Carl and by Charles Boal, both being received with applause which called them forth again.

TELLS HISTORY OF CAPTURE. Mr. Gunn spoke in part as follows: "Commodore Sloat had captured Monterey, July 7. The other towns of Northern California passed peacefully into the possession of the United States, but the towns and settlements in the south were still loyal to Mexico. Commodore Stockton, who had succeeded Commodore Sloat in command of the Pacific squadron, determined to subjugate these. On July 25, Fremont's battalion, which had been recruited to 160 men, was sent on the frigate Cyane to San Diego, there to procure horses and as cavalry to cooperate with Commodore Stockton in the conquest of the south.

Commodore Stockton, with a force of 300 sailors and marines, on the morning of August 5, sailed for San Pedro. On the 6th of August the expedition reached San Pedro. The flag was raised there, and the sailors and marines were drilled in military maneuvers on land, and preparations made for the march to Los Angeles, then the capital of California.

MARCH TO VICTORY. "On the 11th the march was begun, and on the 13th Stockton's column was joined just south of the town by Fremont's battalion that had come up from San Diego, and the combined armies entered Los Angeles at 4 o'clock on the 13th day of August, 1846.

Gen. Castro, the military commander of California, with part of his staff, left the town on the 14th for Sonoma, going by the San Geronimo Pass and the Colorado River route. "Gov. Pio Pico took his departure from the capital on the night of the 14th. He went first to Santa Margarita, near San Juan Capistrano, where for a time he was concealed by his brother-in-law, Juan Porter; from there he made his way to Lower California and crossed the Gulf to Guaymas, and later sent to Hermosillo, the capital of Sonora. Over and over again he urged the national government of Mexico to recover California, but his appeals were unheeded. The soldiers of Pico's and Castro's armies, being unable to oppose the Americans, retired to their homes and Stockton's battalion met with no resistance.

"Whether the flag was raised in front of the government house which stood near the St. Charles Hotel; now stands on North Main street, or at the juzgado (council house) on the plaza, is a moot question. Commodore Stockton established his headquarters in the widow Albia's house, a part of which is still standing. It is on the east side of Olvera street, north of the plaza.

TRIED BEHIND CLOSED DOORS. KRONSTADT, Aug. 12.—The trial by court-martial of sailors was begun today. The sappers will be tried later. The trial was behind closed doors, and officers of rank even to that of colonel are not admitted.

same time a crew is laying rails from Vineland to Covina and a temporary track has been laid from a connection with the Pacific Eastern line at Alhambra street and the river, for a distance of half a mile along the line of the old San Gabriel Valley right of way.

TO CONSIDER THE REMOVAL OF THE OFFICES OF HIS ROAD FROM THEIR PRESENT QUARTERS AT SECOND AND SPRING STREETS to the new railroad row, is one of the tasks which Mr. Cass finds hand on his visit here. No decision has as yet been handed down in the matter, but Mr. Cass gives the assurance that his line will keep pace with the growth of the city and will see to it that its representatives keep on the firing line.

LEAVING OVERNIGHT, Mr. Cass this morning, in his private car, Mr. Cass will visit San Francisco, arrange for the permanent office of his road there and proceed to Portland and then home to his quarters at St. Paul. He is accompanied by his family and C. P. Bratner, a wealthy business man of this city, and nephew of Henry Bratner, the famous mining engineer.

CIVIL SERVICE METHODS POOR.

UNJUST TO COMMON LABOR, AND IMPRACTICABLE.

Present System a Source of Much Nuisance — Well-Dressed Clerical Men Detailed to Pick-and-Shovel Work—Rules Decrease Efficiency, and Result in General Hardship.

The attempt to apply civil-service rules to the employment of pick-and-shovel laborers by the city has not been conspicuously successful. It has caused chronic irritation, and has decreased the efficiency of common labor at least 40 per cent, and that is equivalent to a corresponding increase in the cost of work.

Civil-service regulations were designed originally to insure efficiency in public clerical work by abolishing the spoils system and creating a force of trained public servants independent of political machines. Applied to the intermittent employment of unskilled laborers, such regulations are reduced to absurdities.

In the work of the water department, the impracticability of the civil-service system of selecting laborers is shown strikingly. When the department needs men to dig trenches, it must send for them to the Civil Service Commission. Many of the "laborers" supplied come to their work in "white clothes," white-front shirts and rusty hard hats, instead of in jumpers and overalls. They need work, no doubt, but they are not physically fit to work with pick and shovel. Put at work in wet places, they tiptoe around the water like cats, afraid of wetting their feet, and they have no skill at all in handling implements of labor.

Recently a large gang was put at work in constructing a trench for a sewer. Real workmen would have been glad to kick off their shoes and wallow in the cooling sand and water. But the civil-service "laborers" would not wet their feet, and the department had to buy and send out to them a wagonload of rubber boots in order to get any work done.

There is no sign upon the Statue of Liberty, or the gate of Castle Garden, notifying the world that there is no work for foreigners in America, but the civil-service rules forbid the employment of any but citizens on public work in this city.

One result of this fantastic distortion of the civil-service idea is that the contractors get the pick of labor and snap up most of the efficient men, while the rest are left to take the inefficient and unfit.

Recently the Civil Service Commission sent a communication to the Water Board calling attention to charges of alleged discrimination against civil service men in favor of men not citizens.

"It appears from the record," said the commission, "that during May, June, and July, 211 laborers quit work or were discharged, and 221 emergency men were employed. Presumably, a large proportion of the laborers laid off are civil service men, while on the other hand the new men coming in are mostly employed outside of civil service lines."

"In the last fourteen months this commission has received from your department about 750 laborers. Either the intermittent character of employment, or some other cause, has resulted in a high percentage of men, and apparently there are not enough now to supply the requirements of your department, and comparatively few are now registered under civil service. The commission is very desirous of finding out the cause of this rapid depletion of the civil service list."

The commission's charge for information has been answered. The water board referred the matter to Superintendent Mulholland, and yesterday he made a report. The charge of discrimination he dismisses as wholly untrue, and then says:

"Many men are certified to us by the civil service department who are wholly unfit, physically, to cope with the arduous labor required of them by us, and the men who are actually employed by us, or they quit of their own accord. This process of elimination has been a common one in the operation of the water works for the last twenty-five years at least, and in the nature of things will continue, unless we resort to the method of employing such a force as we can maintain in steady employment and let out all the rest of our work by contract."

Minnie Kim, the Chinese contestant, has a decided rise this morning in consequence of the very practical help given her by the church and mission people of the city. Sunday, in response to urgent invitations, she attended three of the four Sunday schools, and yesterday a sufficient number of subscriptions and coupons reached the office to raise her score to the twenty-fourth row and place her in the 15,000 column. Several thousand more points on the way as a result of Minnie's rise. Her score was also taken in her cause by the Christian people of Los Angeles who propose to see to it that this bright and worthy Chinese girl has her chance. While her wish now is for a scholarship in a business college, Minnie does not intend to give up her education. She has a high school education and has vision of an extensive course at the University of Southern California eventually. The impetus given this bright, ambitious girl now will do more for missions in a practical way than in any manner possible.

Minnie has a good English education and is careful to preserve her Chinese language. "When I come to Los Angeles," she said to the scholarship manager yesterday, "I must want to know how to speak English, but I do not wish to forget my native tongue or to grow rusty in its use." To give this girl a better hand now may mean the salvation of many thousands of her worshipping in China. Send in your subscriptions and coupons for Minnie, friends, and give a practical illustration of the value of work. She will need a good many thousand more points to put her in the winning row. "Many hands make light work" and a concerted movement on the part of the church and its friends will speedily accomplish the desired result.

ORANGE COUNTY ON TOP.

This morning Merle Previtt rode above her twin of yesterday and again secured the top perch all to herself. Her friends flew to the rescue yesterday and secured her a subscription of $100. One gentleman in his subscription sent her packages of coupons numbering over 400 and a couple of annual subscriptions. Merle's score now is 75,000 points toward the 90,000 mark.

Bertha Smith maintained an absolute silence, but her score was increased by a prize of $100 from her father. Evidently the San Bernardino county candidate has been too busy collecting votes to report, but she will doubtless be in the money.

UFS AND DOWNS.

William Holstad rises one in the score and crowds down the Lordsbury girl and the lively Azusa candidate. Mary Anasaur rises a pair of two hundred annual subscriptions and almost matches Carl B. Bickel's Kansas City banner bearer when it comes to gathering in new subscriptions. She swells her score to 100,000 points.

Harry Wood takes the San Diego girl's place and she continues to slide down the ladder, one by one, other contestants.

Mary Lallich has a friend who called at headquarters once or twice every week with a bunch of coupons for her. "I have never seen her," he said. "But I read that she wanted to get back to the twenty-third row and I just thought I would send her a few coupons." Mary is very appreciative of any

SEEK GANG OF HORSE THIEVES.
SANTA ANA OFFICERS LOOK FOR ONE IN LOS ANGELES.
Sheriff Now in This City to Locate Stolen Horse and Buggy—Claim Made That Many Rigs Are Traced Here, Then Lost—Horses May Be Dyed and Clipped.

SANTA ANA, Aug. 13.—Sheriff Lacy and J. R. Fowler, proprietor of the Star Livery Stable, went to Los Angeles today to look for a horse and buggy which was stolen from Mr. Fowler last Friday. The officers here are of the opinion that there is a well-organized gang of horse thieves operating from Los Angeles, and it is believed that the stolen rig will be found in that city.

It is said that officers throughout Southern California trace missing horses to Los Angeles constantly, and then lose all track of them. The gang either sends men out to pick up rigs and horses from livery stables, or else secures them on the streets while they are unattended. Fowler lost his horse in the first named manner. He says that last week a man about 40 years old, with a strong Swedish accent came to the stable and hired a black mare and an open rubber-tired buggy. They have not been seen since. Sheriff Lacy thinks the gang has a hiding place in Los Angeles where the horses are taken and clipped. They are then dyed, otherwise marked, and disposed of. The buggies and wagons may be repainted and then sold. The Sheriff purposes to make a thorough search of the city before coming back.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.
Edward Casner, an employee of the Griffith Lumber Company, was seriously injured while unloading lumber at the Newport wharf this morning. In attempting to catch a crane-load of lumber on a flat car, the man was struck by the boom and a No. 6 special rail was driven into his chest, where it was stated he has a severe fracture.

Mrs. Col. S. H. Finley and Miss Blanch Collins entertained Saturday evening at the home of Miss Collins with a shower party in honor of Miss Minnie Moore, who is to be married tomorrow at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Cullins, to the Rev. Mr. Gray of China.

Mrs. Anna Etta May, who is spending some time on the Pacific Coast, gave the people of Santa Ana an opportunity to hear her singing yesterday at the First Methodist Church. At the morning service Mrs. May rendered Handel's "He Was Despised and Rejected."

Articles of incorporation have been filed by the Laguna Beach Wharf and Improvement Company, to construct wharves and warehouses, and to carry on a shipping and storage business, and to deal in real estate. Joseph Yoch, J. N. Lech, O. W. Warring, C. A. Bissell and Samuel Jacoby, all of Santa Ana, are directors. The capital stock is placed at $200,000.

ANAHEIM HAPPENINGS.
ANAHEIM, Aug. 13.—During the past few weeks the two local lumber yards have received nearly thirty carloads of lumber and building material, and Anaheim is now building up quite rapidly.

J. S. Howard has just let a contract to Streche & Tedford for a $1500 residence on Claudia street.

William Schumacher has contracted with W. W. Scott for the erection of a $2000 residence in the Sunrise tract.

Mrs. Strothoff will erect a $3000 residence on Lemon street, and has let the contract to Bender & Silvernagel.

Ramon Wieser has let a contract to Steele & Eberle for the erection of a $3000 residence on Lemon street.

William Kretschner has contracted to erect a $1500 residence for William Porter on Lemon street.

Arthur Lewis has let a contract for a $1500 residence on Chertsey street.

A. A. Mills is building a $3500 residence on North Los Angeles street.

E. F. Kellogg is building a $1500 addition to his residence.

Walter Wesscott has awarded a contract for the erection of an eleven-room residence on West Broadway, to cost about $5000.

Many other buildings are also in course of construction, and the residents of this city are proud of the present building record, which indicates that many new settlers are locating in the "Mother Colony."

Agent Clabaugh of the Santa F.R. stated this morning that twelve carloads of potatoes had been shipped from this point during the past week.

LARGE COLONIZATION PLAN.
Three Thousand Russian Jews May Form Settlement in Kern County Valley.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.]
BAKERSFIELD, Aug. 13.—A colonization scheme is now under way which may cause 3000 Russian Jews to emigrate from Russia and take up their homes in the Kern County valley. The project is being supported by Senator George C. Perkins.

Four Russians, an interpreter and an American, said to be the son of Senator Perkins, went to the Cuyama ranch recently. The Russians in the party were religious representatives of the Jews who have banded together and desiring to leave Russia, sent their rabbis to investigate and make a report.

The party returned to Bakersfield last Friday and it is understood that they will visit the country proposed for their settlement. They represent a portion of the Russian agricultural class and it is expected that they will report favorably to their people.

Men We Will Cure You With Electricity

Electricity is animal vitality. It is the foundation of all strength. It is the force which runs the human machine. Electricity, as we apply it, is a source of new life to all parts of the body. It should be used by no man who suffers the loss of that vital element which renders life worth living. No man should allow himself to become less a man than nature intended him; no man should suffer for the sake of his health, when there is here at hand a certain check for his weakness, a check to his vitality.

Most of the pains, most of the weakness of stomach, heart, brain and nerves from which you suffer, are due to an early loss of nature's reserve power through mistakes of youth. You need not suffer for the sake of your health. The very element which you have lost you can get back and you may be as happy as any man that lives.

VARICOCELE

AND ALL OTHER DISEASES OF MEN
Can Be Cured
BY MY METHODS

Many men afflicted with varicocele are endangering their general health, their manly powers, and even life itself, by allowing the disorder to remain uncorrected. Many of them believe it is an incurable disease, which is far from being the truth, as I have demonstrated not only hundreds, but thousands of times.

Varicocele results from partial paralysis of the delicate nerve fibers that have a part in controlling local circulation of the blood. The muscular coatings of the veins, being deprived of nervous communication and control, become inactive, weaken and relax. The blood vessels expand from the pressure within, the circulation in the parts becomes sluggish, and frequent stagnant pools form in little nooks and pockets that constantly enlarge as the relaxation continues. The possibility exists that clots may form in these stagnant pools and then pass out into the general circulation. Should one find lodgment in a valve of the heart the result might be instant death, or should it be carried to the brain, general paralysis would follow.

I guarantee to cure varicocele in one week by a method that involves no painful processes. No other physician employs a like method, and so thorough is my work that there need not be the slightest fear of a relapse into the old condition.

It is not a question of whether you can be cured, but whether you will be cured. Don't wait until it is too late. My method for the treatment of varicocele is perfect and quick. The cure is absolutely certain. I use NO KNIFE, cause no pain, and you need not be detained from your work by one day. I especially solicit those cases in which the many so-called treatments have failed, or where money has been wasted on electric belts and other appliances.

SOME UNVARNISHED TRUTH.
My fees are the same in January as in July. They are the same every day in the year. They are always fair, and my practice grows because the people are aware of that fact.

EXAMINATION FREE.
I offer not only FREE consultation and advice, but of every case that comes to me I will make a careful examination and diagnosis without charge. No stalling man should neglect this opportunity to get expert opinion about his trouble.

Special For Ladies

The opening of La Marque, a treat for lovers of nice lingerie. Los Angeles has a place equal to any in the city.

The opening at 340 So. Broadway has added a new attraction for Los Angeles women of which they will doubtless show their appreciation.

The place is on the Eastern style entirely, of the same nature and may be said to be equal to any in the country. It is an exclusive corset and lingerie shop, fitted up in elegant and comfortable style. The fittings are very attractive, being done in white with green trimmings. Fitting rooms, lined with mirrors, are provided and three expert salesladies and fitters mould

the unshapely female form to the latest improved style. Besides the corset department are the linen goods, exclusive designs and materials not found elsewhere in this city are here given prominence and the delight of the female heart, for the dainty patterns, can here be gratified at prices that are astonishingly low, considering the quality of the stock carried.

The entire place is under the management of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Marks, both of whom have had much experience in this line of merchandise in Eastern cities. They invite the ladies of Los Angeles to inspect their shop.

VIRGINIA RAINFALL CLIMAX.

NORFOLK (Va.) Aug. 12.—With almost unprecedented rains for nearly two months, the record of the present summer was broken last night and today with a fall of between four and five inches in the last twenty-four hours. Floods have occurred everywhere, and "city and suburban streetcar traffic is tied up. "Great damage to crops is reported. At Richmond, Dr.

F. Ellison was drowned while crossing

Stagg Creek. His five-year-old son was saved by his father placing him in a tree.

Frank Lima, a deck hand on the steamer Gold, was accidentally drowned Sunday. He fell from the steamer in McNair's Basin, Petaluma.

It was Lima's day off, but to oblige a friend, employed on the boat, he took his place.
